THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

The Marriage of Miss Brown and Mr. Clark at Trinity Church.

Mr. Gibson the Happy

Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church was the scene this morning of an interesting wedding. The chancel presented a beautiful appearance with its decoration of fine palms and lovely flowers. Miss Ida May Brown, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Chas. Camden Brown, and Mr. Watson Freeman Clark, son of Mr. Edward Clark, architect of the Capitol, were the happy principals. The bride, a handsome brunette, was gowned in white organdie over white taffeta. She wore a diamond brooch and carried a bunch of bride roses. She entered the church with her father, to the familiar strains of "Lohengrin," and was preceded by her sister, Miss Mary Virginia Brown, as maid of honor. The latter wore pink or-gandie over pink taffeta, and carried La France roses. The ushers were Mr. Mason Brown, Mr. Wm. M. Hannay, Mr. Benj. S. Graves and Mr. A. L. Richardson. The bride was met at the chancel by Mr. Clark, who was attended by his brother, Mr. Edward C. Clark of New York. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Richard P. Williams, the rector of the church. After a short visit to the northern beaches Mr. and Mrs. Clark will summer at the ancestral home of the Clarks at Sand-wich, Mass.

At the Church of the Ascension at noon today Rev. John H. Elliott joined in mar-riage Miss Martha M. Bowie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O. Bowie, and Mr. Charles R. Gibson, son of Mr. Wm. Gibson. The bride was gowned in white organdie over white taffeta, with lace and ribbon trimmings, and wore a leghorn hat trimmed with plumes and mousseline de sole. Her bouquet was of bride roses. Her only attendant was Miss Bessie Ruth Walk-er, who wore a white organdie over taffeta, with pink ribbons, and leghorn hat with rimmings to match, and carried La France

The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. Maurice H. Grasse of Baltimore, as best man. The relatives and friends were seated by the following ushers: Dr. Alexander D. McKenzie, Mr. Walter D. Harrison, Mr. John C. Sutherland and Mr. R. D. Moran. The groom and attendants wore boutton-leres of the bride's flowers.

The music on this occasion was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Joseph Reynolds of Memphis, Tenn. The following selections form a part of the musical program: March and chorus, "Tannhauser;" "Gavotte Francaise," Clark: "Evening Star," Wagner: "Chorus of Argales," "The This manual ner; "Chorus of Angels," "The Triumphal

March."
As the bridal party entered the church to the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" and during the ceremony the soft music of "A Dream" was played. The couple left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn. The bridal party and imme-diate relatives returned to the home of the bride's father to see them off.

The bride's going away gown was of cadet blue cloth, with hat to match.

Rev Dr. Lucien Clark, pastor of Foundry Rev Dr. Lucien Clark, pastor of Foundry Church, performed the marriage ceremony last night at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. A. J. Biedler, for Miss Edith Biedler and Mr. F. A. Steele. Owing to a recent bereavement the witnesses to the marriage were only the relatives and close friends of the contracting parties. Miss Bessie McConnell stood up with her friend, her gown being of pink organdie over pink silk. She carried La France roses. Little Helen Biedler was flower girl. The bride wore white satin, trimmed with point lace and pearls, a tulle veil, and carried bride roses. A wedding supper followed the cerroses. A wedding supper followed the ceremony, and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Steele left for a southern trip, and upon their return will reside at Massachusetts avenue and 13th street,

Miss Jennie Hepburn Reading of Wil-Miss Jennie Hepburn Reading of Williamsport, Pa., and Mr. Malcolm Alexander Niernsee were married yesterday at the residence of Mr. John Fletcher, Le Droit Park. Rev. Edward M. Mott officiated and Mr. John Fletcher was best man. The bride was escorted to the parlor by Mr. Robert K. Reading of Pennsylvania, who gave her hand in marriage. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and roses. The entire party enjoyed a wedding collation before party enjoyed a wedding collation before the couple took their departure. Other guests present included Miss Fletcher, Mrs. Frankin Reading of Williamsport, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Niernsee, paents of the groom, and the Misses Niern-ee and Mr. Minnix.

A DEADLY DOSE.

Abe Harrod Swallows Carbolic Acid With Fatal Results.

Abe Harrod, a nineteen-year-old colored aborer, committed suicide last evening by taking a dose of carbolic acid. The suicide lived in Tenleytown. About 8 o'clock in the evening he visited the pharmacy of Dr. Charles Becker and secured the acid, claiming it was to be used for disinfecting purposes. He swallowed the contents of the bottle and walked across the road to a field, where he was found about 9 o'clock, unconscious, and evidently had suffered intense

Dr. A. M. Ray, whose office is in Tenley-town, was called and did what he could to resuscitate Harrod, and in the meantime a summons was sent through police channels for the patrol. The ambulance responded and carried the man, who was still in an unconscious condition, to Georgetown University. Dr. Gwynne worked with him, but the deadly poison had done its work. Despite the efforts expended to save his life, Harrod died at 12:30 o'clock this morning.

No cause can be attributed for the rash act. The young man seemed to be all right yesterday afternoon when at his home, and gave no intimation of his intention. The coroner was notified of the death, but no in-quest will be haid.

ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL. Award of Prizes at Closing Session Yesterday.

St. Paul's School, on 15th and V streets, closed yesterday afternoon. The principal feature of the program of exercises was a bright drama called "A Convention of the Muses," which nine young ladies presented in a pleasing manner. The boys won much applause by a well-executed sword drill. Miss Julia Shanahan delivered a recitation entitled "Pancratius." Several vocal numbers showed to advantage the welltrained voices of the pupils.

Rev. Father Mackin at the conclusion of the exercises made a few complimentary re-marks, and then followed the distribution of awards as follows: A gold medal for lessons and correct deportment was drawn for by Misses Julia Shanahan, Elsie Hammett, Nellie O'Connor, Rose Shea, Josephine Fegan, Maude Taylor, Marguerite Connolly, Della Malloy, Mary Boiac, Marie C. Malloy, Mary Malloy, Eva Owens, Clara Sydnor, Mary Fitzgerald, Josephine Bolac, Angela Simonton and Masters Francis Hurney and Edward Roche, Miss Elsie Hammett winning.

In the same class a gold heart for regular attendance was drawn for by Misses Elsie Hammett, Nellie O'Connor, Clara Sydnor, Della Malloy and Master Francis Hurney, Clara Sydnor being the successful

In the junior class a gold medal for lessons and conduct was drawn for by Misser Annie Malloy, Rose Powers, Emma Beale, and Masters George Malloy, Martin Junghaus, Thomas Hurney and Anthony Con nolly, Miss Annie Malloy securing the prize. In the same class a gold heart for atterdance was drawn for by Misses Julia Donovan, Annie Donovan, Irene Reynolds, Bessie Collins and Masters Henry Batch, Joseph Junghaus, Thomas Hurney, George Malloy and Anthony Connolly. Henry Batch won. In the minim class a gold medal for les sons and conduct was competed for by Misses Katherine Connolly, Katie O'Dea Annie Roche, Lizzie Frawley and Master Joseph Campbell. Drawn by Annie Roche. In the same class a gold heart for attendance was drawn for by Misses Annie Roche, Mary Roche, Katherine Connolly, Katie Lynch and Masters Alphonsus Hurney, John Bolac, Charles Smith, Otto Gerhardt and Lawrence Widmeyer. It was secured by Lawrence Widmeyer.

AGAINST DEFENDANT.

Frank Fitzgerald Declared Guilty,

Frank Fitzgerald, tried yesterday in Crim inal Court No. 1 under an indictment alleging larceny from the person, was declared guilty. To the verdict of conviction, however, the jury added a recommendation that Fitzgerald be accorded the mercy of the court. It was brought to the attention of the court that Fitzgerald had been before the courts about forty times on various charges. Justice Clabaugh sentenced him to imprisonment in the West Virginia penitentiary at Moundsville for three years. The offense of which Fitzgerald was convicted yesterday was the felonious tak-ing of a pocket book, containing money, from the pocket of a man named Thompson the 19th of last month, while the par-ties were on 3d street near Pennsylvania

In connection with the trial, Henry Walk-er, colored, a United States witness, when called to the stand, appeared in an intoxi-cated condition. He was committed to jail by Justice Clabaugh until 10 o'clock this walker was brought into court this morning and released from custody after Justice Clabaugh had rebuked him for appearing in court as a witness while in an intoxicat-

PASTOR'S RESIGNATION. Action of Council in Tribute to Dr.

At an ecclesiastical council of Congregational clergy and laymen of Washington and Baltimore, assembled at Baltimore Monday evening last, to consider the resignation of Rev. H. W. Ballantine, D.D., who has been identified with the Washington conference for over five years, and who is well and favorably known in this city, the following resolutions were adopted:
"The ecclesiastical council called to consider the resignation of Dr. H. W. Ballantine as pastor of the First Congregational Church of Baltimore, Md., unite in the following resolutions:

Church of Baltimore, Md., unite in the fol-lowing resolutions:

"We approve, though with much regret, the action of the church in the acceptance of Dr. Ballantine's resignation.

"We have great satisfaction in knowing that the severance of the relation between the church and its pastor was due to no discontent or division in the congregation, but that, on the contrary, most cordial and affectionate relations subsist between pas-ter and people.

affectionate relations subsist between pastor and people.

"We bear most hearty testimony to the ability, fidelity and devotion of Dr. Ballantine's service to this people; we recognize him as a man of thorough scholarship, of active public spirit, of unusual pulpit power and of peculiarly kind and winning personality; we deeply regret that the presence and influence of such a man is to be withdrawn from this church and this city.

"We devecutly commend to the providence and grace of God the future of this church, bereft of so faithful and gracious a ministry."
